

PENSERRA RECEIVES RECOGNITION IN RECENT INDUSTRY SURVEY

September 2015

Penserra rated favorably in this year’s annual transition management survey published by leading industry publication aiCIO in its September 2015 issue. In its debut on the survey, Penserra was recognized as:

“ The sleeper to watch: Penserra, who with a satisfaction score of 4.71 is the highest of the regional providers – its region being the US. With renewed focus on improving service and hiring industry talent, this is the firm to watch. ”

Survey responses also rated transition providers based on Client Satisfaction. Penserra was well represented based on the following results:
